

Self- Directed Learner

- I set goals and work to meet them.
- I listen in class and follow directions independently.
- I am responsible with my work and complete assignments on time.
- I keep my desk, folders, and backpack organized without help or reminders.
- I use my free time to read, write, or work on projects without bothering my classmates or teacher.
- I have my materials out and am ready for learning without reminders from my teacher.

Collaborative Worker

- I get along and work with others.
- I share my ideas.
- I listen to and respect others' ideas.
- I give positive comments and compliments to others to encourage them as they work.
- I can agree on things with others and do not always have to have my own way.
- I help others when they need it.

Complex Thinker

- I like learning new things.
- I try to think of different ways I can solve problems.
- I use a variety of strategies to think while I am reading.
- I share my ideas orally and in writing by including lots of details and choosing a variety of words.
- I ask questions.
- I use my past knowledge to understand things and solve problems.
- I go beyond what is expected on assignments and projects by finding creative or original ways to think.

Quality Producer

- I do my best in all of my assignments.
- I am always proud of the work and projects that I complete.
- I take extra time to make things look neat and not just rush to finish it.
- I edit, proofread and look over my ideas when I finish my assignments and tests before I turn them in.
- I use the appropriate supplies and materials when working on an assignment or project.
- I take time to think about and reflect on my own learning.

Community Contributor

- I participate in class by raising my hand and sharing my ideas.
- I use an appropriate volume of speaking when working.
- I keep a positive attitude about myself, others and my learning.
- I work hard to build strong friendships.
- I clean up my work area and other areas around my table or classroom without being asked or told to do it.
- I line up and travel down the halls without talking so as not to disturb other classrooms that are learning.